Editor's Letter

I appologize for the delay in publishing the Summer issue of Tree Talk. A death in my family caused me to be out of town several days at a time in June, July and August. At the same time, my home was undergoing a major re-modeling project. In such chaos, it was difficult to organize my thoughts and the material for this issue. Thankfully, these problems are behind me now and I should be able to get the Fall issue published nearly on time (I hope!).

I want to thank the following persons for listing the names in Tree Talk used in preparing the annual index. The Summer issue would have been delayed even more without their help. They are:

IdaLee D. Edmiston	- Fall issue #1, Vol. 28, pages 1-18
Joan Singletary	- Fall issue #1, Vol. 28, pages 19-36
Phyllis Moody	- Winter issue #2, Vol 28, pages 37 - 48
Eileen Jones	- Winter issue #2, Vol 28, pages 49 - 60
Helen Marable	- Winter issue #2, Vol 28, pages 61 - 72
Larry Cribbs	- Spring issue #3, Vol 28, pages 73 - 84
Jane Miller	- Spring issue #3, Vol 28, pages 85 - 96
La Tanya Cole	- Spring issue #3, Vol 28, pages 97 - 108

As always, I thank those persons who contribute the articles to be published. In this issue they are: Merle Faye Barber McBee, Ogreta W. Huttash, and Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak. Thanks also to Ancestry Daily News for permission to publish Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak's article.

In Memory of Clyde Audrey Barber

Author: Merle Faye Barber McBee - cousin

Transcribed July 4, 2000 by Gwen Brewer McDaniel – friend

On Saturday afternoon June 6, 1914, Dr. Stokes delivered Clyde Audrey Barber in a modest farm house five miles east of Jacksonville, Texas. Audrey was the last child born to Clyde H. Barber and Ethel Ewing Barber; there were three other boys and two sisters.

His mother was a staunch Cumberland Presbyterian and reared the six children and none of them used tobacco or alcohol in any form. In that day and time alcohol was only available through bootleggers and most law abiding citizens left alcoholic beverages alone.

At an early age Audrey and his brothers and sisters helped their parents by doing chores and working in the field. Once when he was tired and the brothers pleaded for help, it is reported he said, "“f you had the ‘side burns’ like I have, you wouldn’t want to work either.”

About 1926 Audrey went to live with his oldest brother, A. N. Barber, his wife and two children, Merle Faye and John Robert, who at that time was called Jack. Their home was $\frac{3}{4}$ mile from his own home, so on the weekend he would go to his home and shave his father who chewed tobacco. The family all said that was the only time C. H. Barber had a clean chin.

It appeared that the change from being the baby of the family to the oldest child brought benefits to him and his brother’s family as well.

Audrey continued to go to Reynolds school, better known as Tecula. Somehow he received the nicknames of Cooter, which was often shortened to Coot. It must have been started before he moved to the A. N. Barber home, because he said the first sentence Merle Faye ever said was, “Cooter, crank car!”

A N. Barber was a workhorse and Audrey was very submissive to the ever whim of his oldest brother. He would do what he thought was needed and then come into the house. Before long Newell would yell, “Eh” or “Audrey” which was a summons for help with additional tasks. Without a complaint he would go out into the dark and aid his brother until they both came in for a late supper.

When the Barber home burned Easter Sunday 1932, Audrey proved his strength and dependability for team work with his sister-in-law, Mady Barber, whom he considered a second mother, by helping to lift a heavy china closet and getting out clothing and bedding so the family could start over again. At that time house insurance in the rural area was unheard of.

Audrey and Merle Faye chopped cotton, killed ants, waved at the train engineers, and told secrets they never mentioned to anyone else as they worked together. The relationship in this home was so close people began to think of him as the son of Mady and Newell Barber.

Audrey was a well-behaved person, but sometime in his teen years he realized that he was a sinner and needed a Saviour. He made a commitment to Jesus Christ and he matured in grace and knowledge. He loved the Bible and willingly put the principle of love into practice, especially in the home.

Audrey grew in size and about this time it became quite comical when his biological mother introduced him as her baby. You should have seen the expression on the faces of these people. Some of them had the courage to say, "He's a big baby!" Often Audrey would add "baby elephant" for by this time he weighed almost 200 pounds.

Audrey liked music for amusement. He and Merle Faye took piano lessons from J. L. Bearden. Audrey played mostly by ear and also took up playing the guitar. After Audrey finished with A. N. 's chores, there was music. After the crops were laid by, Audrey, Merle Faye, and Mady went to Mt. Hope to a week's singing school. It was held in a one room Nazarene Church building located approximately ten miles from our home. We were taught the fundamentals of music.

Once a month on Sunday afternoons, the family would go to a county singing convention. The song leaders from that neck of the woods would lead a hymn from the Stamps-Baxter book and every pianist in the house would have the opportunity to play for someone. Of course, the best pianist got to play the most. Audrey and Merle Faye were both timid and usually played only when their teacher had given them a song to practice ahead of time.

Audrey continued to follow in the steps of his foster mom and dad working 60 or more hours per week. One fourth of July he and Newell planted peas on a rented place about two miles from the house called the Blair Place. Many passers-by grinned and waved at these people so foolish they didn't know what day it was, only later to pick peas for free when they "made."

Even though the Newell Barber family thought Audrey was an angel, he did have a temper. It usually evidenced itself by pouting or taking a long walk to the backside of the farm. Once, when there was a misunderstanding over his getting the family car, he just sat hard in a chair that was close to the window and rocked back so vigorously that he broke the window light nearby.

In 1936 Morton Barber helped him get a job at Reed Roller Bit Company (Houston) at a very meager sum, and he moved to the home of Marcia and Earnest Jennings. He affectionately referred to his sister as MOM. There he had a foster brother, Lloyd Jennings and a foster sister and niece Freida Jennings. MOM waited on everyone in the family and went from grocery store to grocery store getting everyone's favorite food. When MOM got perturbed at the boys for being so rough on her furniture, she referred to them as young mules. Both Lloyd and Audrey stayed at the Jennings household until their marriages.

There was a lot of happiness in this household according to Freida. Young people from the Church would come Sunday afternoon sometimes.

The first car Audrey bought was a model A. He made regular trips to Jacksonville because at that time he dated a girl from a very nice family. She had invited him to a school banquet and this gesture started the friendship. He planned to propose marriage but said he would not marry her until she became a Christian.

On one of his trips to Jacksonville in the Model A, he turned over, but fortunately the Lord took care of him and he only got a few scratches.

Audrey saved enough money to get a black Plymouth coupe. This was his first car to have a gear shift on the steering column. About the first time he drove it, he was slow in taking off, and MOM teased him about trying to find the gear shift on the floor.

In Memory of Clyde Audrey Barber

One winter Audrey started having chills. In the absence of a doctor, MOM Jennings heated a brick to put to his feet and added Vick's salve with hot cloths on his chest. She had him drinking hot liquid and loaded the bed down with cover. This remedy worked and before long Audrey was well.

During the time that Audrey lived at the Jennings household, Earnest became a Christian. The whole family except Marcia joined North Central Baptist Church. It was here that he became acquainted with Mary Lois Elliott. She lived with her sister, Thelma Wright and her husband Rufus.

Lois operated a beauty shop on Humble Road before the town moved out this far. A few Church people encouraged the friendship of Audrey and Lois.

After some time, Audrey and Lois were married by Bro. Jones June 29, 1941. Soon afterwards they moved to 2310 Tidwell a short distance from the Jennings home on Haney. Christ was made the head of their household, not only in name but also in deed. Lois never felt the Barber family was any threat to her throne and she adopted the A. N. Barber family as hers. They made regular visits to the farms where he grew up. Believe me, when the black Plymouth coupe drove in the yard, the shout could be heard clear to the cow and mule lot, "Here's Audrey!" Mady would put the big pot in the little pot and Newell would load him up with vegetables he grew in the garden.

The Elliott family had already accepted Audrey as one of them before Audrey and Lois married.

Rufus and Thelma Elliott Wright were quite helpful to this couple in more ways than one because Rufus and Audrey were closer than some brothers.

Audrey and Lois spent most of the holidays with the large Elliott family because the Barber family didn't get together much.

By this time Audrey had adopted another Mom, Mrs. Elliott or else she adopted him first. Not only did Mom adopt him but the whole Elliott or worse. Often Audrey remarked what a blessing it was to see such love evidenced in a family. Pops was quieter and less in the limelight than Mom, but he and Audrey spent many happy hours together.

December 7, 1941 the war came. Reed's got several deferments for Audrey, but because there were no children, he finally enlisted in the Navy to avoid being drafted into the infantry and was assigned to a PT boat. Audrey threw himself into Navy life and liked everything except being away from his family. Of course, his family thought he was the most handsome sailor in the Navy.

During this time Merle Faye had gone nearly to Mexico to teach her second year of school at Eagle Pass. Lois now lived with the Jennings and Audrey asked Merle Faye to move to Houston so his wife could live in her own home.

After school was out, Merle Faye went to visit the Jennings and Earnest helped her get a job at Hughes Tool. At that time Hughes was a big operator operating Dixon Gun Plant and other war related facilities.

December 31, 1944, at 8:30 a.m. after endless hours of assistance from Lois, Merle Faye married James McBee in the home of a beloved Baptist deacon, D. G. Gill on Sadler Street. Lois Barber seemed to know how to do everything, even iron army khakis, and she went to the nth degree to help the couple get started off right. After a few months all three of them were members of Melrose Baptist Church. (In Houston)

Mom Jennings, also called Big Sis, would occasionally declare Audrey as her property. As Audrey's return was anticipated, Mom told Lois she intended to get the first kiss. In spite of this threat, Lois allowed all the women to go to the train. At union station four women looked at hundreds of sailors trying to find the one. Merle Faye saw him first and raced to his side with Lois yelling at the top of her lungs, "Honey, don't you kiss her first!" In a matter of seconds there were four women surrounding their sailor, but eventually all were rewarded for meeting the train even though he couldn't hug all four at the same time.

Audrey and Lois entered into all the major activities of the Church as tithing, choir and prayer meeting. He had been ordained as a deacon in Melrose Baptist Church, where he was a charter member.

Their home was one with complete harmony. Bible reading, prayer and gratitude expressed before meals were daily observances. One resolution Audrey made was there would be no arguing in his home. Christ was the head of his house in word and deed.

There was the matter of Lois being able to stay up late at night and go strong the next day. Once when they came to Texas City to see the McBees, the decision was made to go swimming in Galveston about 9 p.m. Of course, it was about midnight before the foursome finally got to bed, and the plan for the next day was to arise at 4 a.m. and go crabbing at the Texas City dike. The loot was a bucket of crabs. It was fun catching them, but the cleaning was no picnic. Everybody but Lois admitted to being "bushed"; she was still enthusiastic over crabbing even after the tiresome task of cleaning them!

Audrey tried as hard as anybody to make something out of his nieces and nephews. First, they opened their home to John Barber and later Laverne.

On October 15, 1982 at 7:15 a.m. Audrey and Lois were on their way to the Ava convention in Dallas. It is possible there was a blowout because Audrey veered to the side and hit an eighteen wheeler. He went home to be with Jesus after living 68 years. Lois was spared because she was asleep in the back seat.

Our hearts are sad, but we can imagine what rejoicing there was at his entrance in Heaven. We wonder which of his Mamas greeted him first. He may have been swamped by Ethel and Mady Barber, Marcia Jennings or Mama Elliott. Pops probably stood aside until all the mom's had their turn. Then in his quiet and unassuming way probably said, "So glad to see you son!"

Dr. Jerry Lemon and Homer Wright presided at the Barber service. Dr. Lemon gave a gospel message of victory for the family and host of friends who gathered at the Pat Foley Funeral Home.

We hope this story will never end! The family of Clyde Audrey Barber prays that his sincere simple faith, love for Christ, and concern for his fellow man will lead many souls to know Christ in a personal way and those who know him will dedicate their homes and lives to Christ with more commitment.

Shelby H. Cook
some research notes by Ogreta W. Huttash

Shelby H. Cook was born in 1820 in Mississippi and is considered to be the son of Green and Nancy Cook who came from Georgia to Mississippi, probably Franklin County, and were in Louisiana before the 1840 Federal Census. Green Cook had received a grant of 643.80 acres in Natchitoches Parish between the Rio Hondo and Sabine Rivers in present Sabine Parish where they were enumerated in 1850. He and Nancy were both age 70, born in the Carolinas. Nearby were Granbury Cook and his family as well as Shelby H. Cook and his wife and four children. Other neighbors were a ferry man and raftsmen, indicating their home was near the Sabine River.

In March 1971 a lady from Houma wrote that five people were searching the Cook - Low connections. This was part of the letter.

"Shelby is definitely old Green Cook's son. Green died about 1853. Shelby Cook's first wife was Edith Low, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth (Parsons) Low. The second marriage was to Bettie E. Allen.

I still don't have in writing that my Granbury was the son of old Green but the ones that they have proven are Shelby Cook, Drucilla Cook b. 1801 in Georgia and married 1831-1833 to Eli Low, married first to Oily Ferguson, in `1820 in Franklin County, Mississippi. Greenberry b. March 7, 1810 in Miss. married Nov. 27, 1834 to Rebecca Low. Greenberry died ca 1837-1838.

We went to the site of the old Green Cook cemetery (my husband and I) Thanksgiving Day. The tombstones are gone and it is at the very edge of the Toledo Bend Project. In fact, if the water rises any higher, the old cemetery will be an island in the lake."

Since that letter was written, the line of Rebecca Low and her parents has been approved by Daughters of the Republic of Texas. And she named a daughter Milberry Cook as did Shelby H. and Edith Cook.

A recent letter from the parish clerk of Sabine Parish says there are no succession papers and only two deeds pertaining to Green Cook, one to his patent and one where he sold that land to Granbury M. Cook on 11 January 1851 for $1,200. The deed to the land reads: United States of America to Green Cook, Assignee of Henry Sharienio, Patent. Filed and recorded May 1, 1901. This was done by Sabine Lumber Company when they sold the land for $73,165.47, as it is read today. This was described as the South half of section ten and the North half of section 15, township five of range 13. All the improvements and buildings were included.

On the 1850 census of Sabine Parish, Shelby Cook was 33, Eda (Edith) was 26, Thomas 7, William 5, Green Berry 4, and E. Milberry was age 2. Family records indicate that Nancy Edith Cook, their fifth child, was born at Hemphill in Sabine County in February 1851. Taylor M. and John Overton Cook were born later, making seven children.

Next we find Shelby H. Cook in Cherokee County, Texas on the tax roll for 1853. In 1856 he paid a poll tax, rendered for taxation 5 slaves, $3,000; 2 horses $200, total value $3,200 for which he paid state tax of $5.30 and county tax of $2.65.

He owned no land in 1856.

Shelby H. Cook

His first - and only - purchase of land was 25 February 1857 and was for 322 acres on Beaver Creek in the Helena Kimble Survey for which he paid $1,600 to James and Antonio B. Morgan of Trinity County for their homestead. This was the last move for Shelby and Edith Cook as she died in 1857 and was buried on their farm.

On September 19, 1859 Shelby H. Cook and Elizabeth Frances Allen were married. She was the daughter of the Rev. Jehu and Emily (Green) Allen - and Emily Green was the daughter of Robert and Louisiana "Luzany" (Richardson) Green who lived only a few miles away. Family Bible records of William Allen, brother of "Bettie" show that their parents married 24 December 1839, and that Emily Green was born 28 December 1820 and died 16 April 1845. When the census taker came around in 1860, the young bride, age 20, had seven step children under age 18 plus her own 2 month old daughter, Frances Helena Cook.

Four years after buying the farm Shelby had the deed recorded. It is on pages 183 and 184 Vol. Q. On that same day and beginning on page 184 he made a deed of gift, by which he said

"Know all men by these presents that I, Shelby H. Cook, in consideration of the love and affection I have for my wife Elizabeth Cook my present wife and her lawful children and the children of my deceased wife Edith Cook do hereby give donate and convey as my free gift and donation to my wife Elizabeth Cook her lawful children, the children of my deceased wife Edith Cook and their heirs forever the slaves Sam Rowden about 50 years old, Ruth about 40 years old, Cloe about 20 years old, Ruth Jr(?) about 12 years old, Ephraim about 8 years old, Aby about 5 years old, and Harriet about 2 years old, and one tract of land we now live on purchased of James Morgan and his wife Mary Antonio J. Morgan containing 322 acres, 5 head of horses, one wagon and yoke of oxen, 15 head (words missing here) little house and furniture, to have and to hold" &c

This deed of gift seems to cover every thing he owned. It has no witnesses, is not indexed, and no guardians were appointed for the minor children.

That year, 1861, Shelby rendered the property with himself as AGENT for his wife and heirs, no property of his own. Then in a year or two he took back all the property as his own, and he claimed all of it the rest of his life. He managed to hold onto all his land even during and after the Civil War and while rearing his large family. He left the large farm, but no will or estate settlement has been found on record. He died in 1876 and is buried between his two wives. The headstone reads

Edith Cook	1824 - 1857
Shelby H. Cook	1820 - 1876
Bettie E. Cook	1838 - 1900

This is the inscription on the official Texas historical marker about 2.5 miles north of Linwood community, Alto, Texas:

CHILDREN OF SHELBY H. COOK AND EDITH LOW

1) THOMAS J. COOK, born ca 1843, enlisted for service in the Civil War in 1861 when a company made up in Houston County marched through Alto. These were men who wanted to fight with the army in Virginia. "Lawyer Mitchell" who stepped into the line when "Tom" did was the grandfather of Margaret Mitchell who wrote "Gone With the Wind" - and several other men did the same. This unit became Company 1, First Texas Infantry, Hood's Brigade, and all fought in Virginia. Tom was killed at Antietam 17 September 1862.

2) WILLIAMS S. COOK, born 1844, enlisted in Company B - 18 Texas Infantry and is believed to have died during the war as no further record has been found. Also, another child was named William, William Jehu Cook. (This unit's name comes from the microfilm.)

3) GREEN BERRY COOK, born 10 March 1846. During the Civil War he enlisted at Camp Roger, Louisiana in Company A - 18 Texas Infantry as a substitute for J. Harrison in the war at Mansfield, Louisiana. He lacked 60 days being 18. When he became 18, he enlisted himself. He married Mrs. Mary L. Gifford 2 January 1875. In 1876 he rendered for taxation 300 acres in James Cook Survey. Mary had two daughters when they married, Mary A. and Sallie Gifford. Green Berry and Mary had two children.

(1) Hugh Thomas Cook was born in 1876, married Emma. He died in New Mexico on the way to California.

(2) Margaret Lumella Cook who married Rufus Walter Parsons 28 April 1895. They are buried at Pleasant Grove Cemetery. She was born 14 September 1877, died 14 July 1954. R. W. was born 27 December 1872 and died 19 January 1931.

Green Berry Cook died 22 January 1883 and is buried at Shady Grove Cemetery. His widow married Newton Hoover 23 December 1891 and divorced him in 1916. In 1922 when she was age 74 she applied for a pension for his Civil War Service and stated that Hoover had been dead for four years. She drew a pension until her death 9 February 1925 on the service of Green Berry Cook.

4) E. MILBERRY COOK was born ca 1848. On the 1850 Sabine Parish census she was age 2; in 1860 in Cherokee County she was age 12. In 1865 on 21 December she and W. W. Wilkins were married. On the 1870 census she had the misfortune to be enumerated as Sarah Milberry! And Milberry was shown as her last name. Her husband was enumerated with the preceding family. He was age 36, worked on a farm. She was age 22, had two children: William age 3 and Anderson, born in April. By the time of the 1880 census, she was listed as Milberry Wilkins, a widow age 32; William age 12, Anderson age 9, Green age 8, Allice age 5 and Leonie, age 3. They lived on or near the Shelby H. Cook land.

Shelby H. Cook

By deed record Vol. 951390-391 dated 7 December 1893, M. E. Wilkins made a quit claim deed to W. G. and Nora Cook for 64 acres for $50 and a note for $50 for her part of the Shelby H. Cook 320 acre tract of land. This was signed by M. E. Wilkins, W. S. Wilkins, A. W. Wilkins, and M. A. Brewer, all of Kaufman County, Texas. This deed did not go on record until 11 October 1921, almost 28 years. W. G. was Mr. Gee, or William Jehu Cook, half-brother of Milberry.

5) NANCY EDITH COOK was born 4 February 1851 at Hemphill in Sabine County, Texas. On 10 October 1869 at Alto, Texas she married John Collier, Jr., son of Dr. John and Mary Celeste Collier. They lived near her parents. On the 1870 census John was 22 and Nancy was 19. Her place of birth shows Texas. By 1880 when the census taker came by John was 31; Nannie was 28; and five children were enumerated. They became parents of 11 children in all. Their last five were born in Kaufman County. Nancy died 28 February 1943 at Kemp, Texas. John Collier was born 7 February 1849 in Rusk County, Texas and died 23 July, 1927. They are buried at Pyles Prairie Cemetery. Green Collier is buried at Friona, Texas. James W. Collier is buried at Hatch, New Mexico.

This Collier line is a DAR line and a Magna Charta line. The Revolutionary War patriot is Joseph Collier who was born in 1749 and married Amy Moseley. He died in 1818 in South Carolina.

6) TAYLOR MARSE COOK was born 9 September 1853 on the family farm. He was age 8 on the 1860 census of Cherokee County with the family. He was not found on the 1870 census. He married Martha Ann Elizabeth House 29 August 1876. In 1880 they were in the Gallatin - Lowe's Chapel area. On the 1880 census he was age 27, born in Texas, father born in Mississippi, and mother born in Texas. Martha E. was age 23, and a 3 year old child, John H., was in the household. They moved to Kemp in Kaufman County, as did several other family members. Then they moved to Eastland County before settling in Cisco. Their children were (1) Estelle Cook. (2) Johnny Cook. (3) Levi Marse Cook, born 26 October 1889 in Kaufman County. (4) Siron Lee Cook born 1 June 1892 in Kaufman County, died 28 May 1984 at Cisco, Texas. He married Cora Hazel Foy. She died in 1984. (5) Mattie Priscilla Cook born 1900 in Cisco, died 1991. No deed to his part of the farm at Alto has been found.

Taylor M. Cook died 29 December 1941 and his wife died 10 August 1926 in Cisco, Texas. After Martha died, he spent the rest of his life with his son Siron Lee Cook and family. A child of that family, Jasper Cook, was the family historian who furnished most of the above information.

7) JOHN OVERTON COOK was age 7 on the 1860 census, age 15 on the 1870 census and age 25 on the 1880 census. On February 20, 1881 he married Mrs. Mary L. Fitts, widow of John Larkin Fitts by whom she had one daughter Mattie O. Fitts who married John Lemuel Felder in 1913. Mary L. was a Gentry by birth, the daughter of Robert K. and Mary Gentry who came here from Edgefield District, South Carolina. A year after Shelby Cook died, the farm was still intact, and was rendered in his name as 320 acres in Helena Kimble grant in 1877. Then in 1878 John O. Cook began rendering 96 acres in James Dill, indicating he had bought out the shares of two other children. The survey is the same as the Helena Kimble, which was her maiden name, under Spanish custom as she was the widow of James Dill. Each year the tax rolls list John O. Cook followed by the land of his stepmother for as long as she lived, appearing he did this as a favor to save her a trip to the courthouse. The 1910 census lists the same children as the deed where the land was sold on 3 March 1920 to H. H. Berryman, who bought 96.3 acres for $1,500. It is recorded in Vol. 204/447. There is no reference to how John O. Cook obtained this land. It mentions Potato Hill Mountain and N W corner of William A. Hardy's 64 acre tract, and in SE league of Helena Kimble or James Dill survey 6 miles N of Alto. These are the ones who sold the land after their parents died. Ages are from 1910 census.

John Overton Cook was born 9 March 1855 and died 1 December 1919. Mary was born 7 December 1857 and died 25 June 1914. They are buried in the Cook family cemetery

CHILDREN OF SHELBY H. COOK AND ELIZABETH FRANCES ALLEN

Shelby and Elizabeth "Bettie" Cook were married in 1859, as stated previously. They reared the children and farmed the place he bought in 1857 until his death in 1876. Then Bettie and the children called it home. These are their children.

1) FRANCES HELENA COOK was born 29 June 1860 and died 18 April 1942. She married Andrew H. Cotton on 14 February 1878. They were parents of one child. Andrew died before the 1880 census as Fanny was a widow with one child at that time and was at home with her mother and family.

- (1) James Cotton was born ca 1879 and died 6 December 1912. He married Freddie McBee 2 June 1912. He is buried at Providence Cemetery. From NEWSPAPER OBITUARIES 1910 - 1921 by Helen Crawford, Book II, 1989: 13 December 1916.

"A telegram was received Wednesday by Jess McBee from his sister, Mrs. Freddie Cotton, at Uvalde stating that her husband Mr. Jas. Cotton died Wednesday and that she would arrive at Jacksonville Thursday with his remains. Mr. Cotton had gone to Uvalde about one month ago in hope of getting relief as he suffered from lung trouble. Mrs. Cotton and two small children had joined him only last Friday. We extend our sympathy to the wife and the babies in their sad hour."

Shelby H. Cook

Fanny (Cook) Cotton married the second time to William Arthur Hardy on 28 June 1892. Both had been married previously. On the 1910 census he was age 68 and she was 48. At home were Lillie J. Hardy, Nellie V. Hardy, Willie A. Hardy, Jessie A. Hardy, Ida M. Hardy and Jimmie Cotton.

William Arthur Hardy applied for a Civil War pension on 17 December 1913 and stated that he was born in Edgefield District, South Carolina. He was a farmer living in Alto. His service was with Company E - 7 Regiment South Carolina Volunteers for four and a half years, then changed to Company B - 14 S.C.V. Infantry, Hill's Division. He was captured 29 July 1864 at Petersburg, Virginia after being wounded in the abdomen. He was released 19 May 1865 at Elmira, New York. Records contain the note "his hair was red" He came to Texas in 1867, to Cherokee County in 1868.

His children by Jane Elizabeth Jennings were 1) John H. Hardy, born 9 August 1872, married Miss S. E. Ford 11 Jan. 1899, died 1 August 1947. 2) Bunyon Hardy born 1 Sept 1875, died 29 Sept 1945. 3) Coleman Hardy, born 23 Dec 1877, married Beatrice Ramey. 4) Guy Hardy and 5) Lillie Hardy.

From THE ALTO HERALD, 23 April 1942, page 1, Column 5 of 6:

"Mrs. Fannie Hardy, age 82, died in a sanitarium in Nacogdoches Saturday after an illness extending over a period of about 3 weeks.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at Cook cemetery five miles east of Alto, being conducted by Rev. A. J. McCuiston. Interment was in Cook cemetery under direction of R. R. Stribling. Mrs. Hardy was a lifelong resident of Cherokee County but just prior to her illness had been living in Diboll.

Survivors are three daughters [paragraphed for easier reading]

Mrs. Jessie Reed, Diboll;

Mrs. Russell Ramey, Tenaha;

Mrs. Charlie Ramey, Alto;

one step-daughter Mrs. Lucille Foxworth, Cleveland; and four step-sons John Hardy, Rusk;

Bunyon Hardy, Cushing;

Coleman Hardy, Alto; and

Guy Hardy, Crossroads."

These stones are in Cook Cemetery.

Fannie Hardy 29 June 1860 - 18 April 1942.

2) LUZANA ELLEN COOK was on the 1870 census of Cherokee County as age 7 and on the 1880 census as age 17. She has not been found on the 1910 census. She married J. T. Hays 19 June 1885. There is a deed 71/76 of 9 Nov 1909, recorded in 1916, by which John Hays of Kaufman County, and A. J. and wife Mary Hays of Cherokee County sold their undivided interest in 322 acres bought by Shelby H. Cook in 1857 to Willis G. Selman, consideration $75. This deed has errors. It reads John Hays and wife, then notarization reads as first written above. The notarization would most likely be correct. On the 1900 census Arthur Hayes, age 13, was in the household of Tom and Eva Willis, his aunt and uncle. There is no way of telling whether he was visiting or whether he lived there. No further information.

3) MARY EMILY COOK was born ca 1864 as she was age 6 on 1870 census, age 14 on the 1880 and was called Emma. She married William Thomas Lindstrom on 12 July 1883. It is said that she died in childbirth 11 January 1886 and is buried in Cook cemetery. Lindstrom had a colorful past and lived a long, long time. This is from a 1941 newspaper.

CHEROKEE COUNTY'S OLDEST CITIZEN, 100, CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY Jacksonville, Tex., March 3 (Special) - - William Thomas Lindstrom, Cherokee County's oldest resident, celebrated his 100th birthday today. Mr. Lindstrom lives at the home of his son, Albert J. Lindstrom, in the Salem Community. He has two other sons, Oscar of Dialville and Tommy of Overton. Relatives gathered Sunday for a dinner honoring Mr. Lindstrom."

The children of William T. Lindstrom and Mary Emily Cook were:

(1) Oscar William Lindstrom, born 1 February 1884, married Mrs. Ada (Haney) Acker 3 January 1909. She had three Acker children: Joe L., Richard, and Novis. The Lindstroms had one known child, Viola, born in 1910, who married Jim Campbell.

Barbara Eran later married Thomas Benjamin Baird and they had four children: Ethel, Martin, Benjamin and Thelma Baird.

William Thomas Lindstrom is buried in Cook Cemetery. His dates are 3 March 1841 - 4 August 1942.

Deed Record 71/79 dated 1 Dec 1906, filed in 1916. shows W. J. and Nora Cook sold Oscar Lindstrom an undivided 3/7 of 160 acre tract of S. H. Cook homestead place, being 69 acres for $350 paid and secured by Oscar and Albert Lindstrom. In 1904 they had bought Fanny Hardy's part of the farm, being 64 acres. O. W. Lindstrom and wife Ada, A. J. Lindstrom and wife Lula, and W. T. Lindstrom sold to W. G. Selman 51 acres for $550.

4) WILLIAM JEHU COOK was age 4 on the 1870 census, age 12 in 1880. He married Elnora Cummings 24 December 1896. She was the daughter of John A. Cummings and his wife Mary Houston. Mr. Gee Cook lived all his life around Alto. He is no stranger to deed records. And anyone named Jehu who lived around Alto had the misfortune to be called Mr. G or Mr. Gee. And often if the name were spelled out, it would be Gehugh. On the 1910 census William J. was 41, Nora 30, Viola, 12, Hal 9, Zona 6, Elbert J. 5, Welborn 4, and Mary 2 months. By deed 71/79 W. J. and Nora sold Oscar Lindstrom an undivided 3/7 of East half of 160 acre tract of Shelby H. Cook homestead place being 69 acres. A careful reading of these deeds indicates the children of the First marriage received the west half, 160 acres, and the children of the second marriage received the east half. This is the headstone at Mt Zion Cemetery:

William J. Cook, born 29 April 1869 - died 20 November 1937.

Elnora Cook, born 29 Dec. 1879 -died 14 April 1966.

This is the best list of their children.

They were living in Gregg County on 2 January 1902 when she sold her undivided 1/7 interest in the Eastern half of 160 acres of the 320 acre tract Shelby H. Cook bought From the Morgans in 1857. The buyer was W.G. Selman. Deed records Q-184 is mentioned. They are buried in Providence Cemetery. Their tombstone inscriptions are:

Shelby H. Cook

- (9) Travis Troy Booth, born 7 October 1909, died 26 March 1981. He married Lenora Gilmore 23 November 1932. He married Vada McKay 24 November 1944.
 (10) Infant unnamed, born 12 January 1914, died 17 January 1917.

Tiny Belle Booth and the tenth child, unnamed infant, are buried at Woodsboro. The other children are buried at Providence Cemetery, Jacksonville, Texas. Only three of Nellie Lee Booth's children reached maturity.

6) ANNA EVA COOK was age 8 on the 1880 census. She married Tom B. Willis 16 February 1893. The 1900 census shows Tom was born in December 1872, age 27, and Eva was age 26, born December 1873.. They had two children, Bennett and Ernest. Also in the household was their nephew, Arthur Hayes, age 13. They had been married 7 years. Eva had had four children, two living. She died in 1900. He married Martha J. in 1906. In 1908 he rendered for taxation 51 3/4 acres in J. Dill Survey, value $250. On the 1910 census we find Tom J. Willis, age 39, married two times, Martha J. age 36, married once, Bennett C. age 16; Ernest age 5?; Eva age 4, and Mary age 3. The tombstone at Mt Zion Cemetery reads Ewa Anne Cook, 20 Dec 1871 - 22 October 1900.

7) MINERVA A. COOK was 6 years old on the 1880 census. She married Willis G. Selman 18 December 1892. By deed record 220/223 they deeded to the Linwood community "a part of the Helena Kimble four League grant and part of the S. H. Cook homestead tract, and part of the 74.1 acre tract surveyed for W. G. Selman by C. H. Hill, surveyor, on the 2nd day of February 1912 and title of said land acquired by said W. G. Selman by deed dated 19 day of Nov. 1910 executed by John Hays and wife, and by deed dated 2nd day of Jan. 1902 executed by Nellie Booth and husband." This would be about 317 of the east half and included an easement for the purpose of giving the public the right of ingress and egress to the graveyard. This is where they are buried. Their tombstones read:

Willis G. Selman, born 24 December 1873 - died 22 February 1939.

Minerva A. Selman, born 26 November 1873 - died 6 September 1943.

This granite marker is at the foot of their graves: [paragraphed here]

"In 1892 Willis G. Selman, son of James V. Selman, married Minerva Cook-Selman, daughter of Shelby Cook's second wife, Bettie E. Allen-Cook.

In 1902 Willis G. Selman purchased about 1/3 of Shelby Cook's homestead tract of land. He moved the house log by log, assembled it as it was before. He assembled it about 300 yards north east of the cemetery. There he fathered ten children. His mother-in-law lived with them until she died in 1900.

In 1937 Willis G. Selman and Minerva Cook-Selman deeded one acre of land to the Linwood Community to be known as Cook Cemetery."

From this inscription it would appear that Willis G. Selman built his home on the land his wife inherited, as he built it before he bought the other acreage.

Shelby H. Cook

The 1910 census lists the children of Willis and Minerva as James L., age 16; Allie, 12; Willie M., 9; Lodema, 6; Howard, 5; Vada, 3; and Tom G., 2 months of age. No obituary for Minerva has been found, as that issue of The Alto Herald was missing. The issue for 24 February 1939, page 1, column 3, has this about the death of Willis:

"Willis Selman, 65, lifelong resident of the Linwood Community, died suddenly at his home about noon Wednesday from an attack of heart trouble. His death was entirely unexpected, and has caused much sadness in the community in which he lived.

Funeral services were held yesterday at 2 p.m. being in charge of the W.O.W. Lodge, in which he had been a valuable member for many years. The Rev. Johnson, Baptist minister of Rusk, and the Rev. A. J. McCuiston of Linwood officiated at the service, and interment was in the Cook Cemetery at Linwood, being directed by R. R. Stribling.

Besides his wife, deceased left nine children, four boys and five girls: Jim , Howard, and Tommie Selman of Alto and McClure Selman of Rusk; Mrs. Raymond Mason, Mrs. Horton Ball, Mrs. M. Cummings of Alto, Mrs. D. L. Rails, and Mrs. Henry King of Rusk.

Two brothers and two sisters also survive, they being Major and Calvin Selman and Mrs. George Cummings of Alto, and Mrs. Charles Pegues of Lilbert."

8) MATTE COOK, the eighth and last child of Shelby and Bettie Cook, is of record only on the 1880 census, age 3, born about the time her father died. She is said to have died 27 October 1887 and to be buried in the Cook family cemetery.

This began as an effort to determine heirs of Shelby H. Cook from public records and began to grow. There are many descendants now in several states

Thus ends the search for the descendants of Shelby H. Cook. It is clear from the deed records that there were five heirs to the land from the first marriage and seven heirs from the second one. Not all deeds went on record and some were off for many years. A summary of the deeds will be added to the Shelby H. Cook folder in Jacksonville Public Library and Stella Hill Memorial Library at Alto, Texas and so will corrections and additions submitted. The search for the father of Green Cook continues - and there is a very good clue being checked!

Honoring Our Ancestors: Bible Rescue Insurance

by Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak

Over the last six months, I've written a series of articles about techniques to track down the rightful owners of Bibles and other treasures that have strayed from family hands. If you're just joining in on this subject, you can see previous articles at: <http://www.honoringourancestors.com/library.html#nine>

After each piece appears, I receive an influx of e-mails from people with other orphaned items, inviting me to do the necessary detective work to locate the family of origin. Often mixed in with these is a sprinkling of comments from people with concerns about heirlooms that either resist rescuing or are returned to family members, only to disappear into the ether again.

Both of these are legitimate issues. Some items are all but impossible to return because of inadequate details, extremely common names, or other impediments. And some rescued treasures are safely tucked away, making it difficult for other descendants of the original owners to access the information contained within.

Fortunately, several readers have written with wise recommendations for exactly these kinds of situations. I'd like to share a few of their ideas with you.

Share it Online

Shawn Ford of Appleton, Wisconsin, suggests that data be copied and uploaded before the return of the item:

"I think it is wonderful that people are returning long lost family Bibles, records, photos and such. I would love to receive one of these records and have the ability to fill in gaps in my genealogy. What concerns me is that these items, when returned, will very possibly remain in the private arena, and other genealogists descended from or related to the original owners will not benefit from the information. Sometimes inertia is the reason for this, and sometimes it is family estrangement. I am sure many genealogists have experienced one or both of these frustrations in attempting to complete their family histories. This is an opportunity to get the information out to the greatest number of descendants. I would like to suggest to those returning these items that the information from these sources be scanned if possible, or at least that it be recorded and uploaded to an online site before the items are returned to a particular family member."

Mitzi Allen was a little more specific, recommending that details be posted on surname message boards and telling of her own success story:

"I would like to see people who have found old Bibles publish the names/dates (if sure the members are deceased, of course) on message boards under the family name. That way, others researching that name can also access the information from the Bible in the future. I had a lovely thing happen to me. Years ago, I put a query on the Pace bulletin board asking to contact others researching my 3rd great-grandfather's family (of course, I put the full name, birth date/place and death date/place in the subject line, rather than a generic "searching for my grandfather" subject). As a result of this posting, I was recently contacted by a woman, Anna Boone, who turns out to be my second cousin once removed. She had a 1912 picture of a young woman who turned out to be my mother! She sent me the picture and you can imagine how thrilled and grateful I am! Wonderful things happen online!"

Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR)

Long before anyone had even thought of a concept like the Internet, the DAR gathered Bible records for preservation. Marcia Connors, the Tennessee DAR Lineage Research Chairman, wrote to remind us of this long-established resource:

Honoring Our Ancestors: Bible Rescue Insurance

"I am in the DAR and one of the projects we support is the copying of the genealogical information in family Bibles, so that this will be preserved for history, rather than lost one day when the Bible disappears. These records are recorded in a book of Bible records in the county where that particular family lived. We do not care where a Bible is from, only that its genealogical information be preserved. Our chapter of the DAR is currently collecting Bible records from those in our county, and this information will eventually be put into book form. If someone has records from another state, those pages are sent to that state's Bible records collection. These records are compiled by the DAR, and placed in the DAR Library at each chapter's expense for anyone to use."

To look for Bibles that may pertain to your family, go to the DAR's Online Library Catalog and search your family surnames as well as the counties in which they lived. Including the word "Bible" in your search terms will help focus the results.

Local and State Societies

Rev. Richard R. Berg, Archivist of the Evangelical and Reformed Historical Society and Director of Library Services for the Lancaster Theological Seminary, provided another option for the researcher hoping to ensure the preservation of a Bible and its contents:

"I . . . support efforts to return such items to the proper families. When such efforts are not successful or the current owner does not wish to make such an effort, an alternative is to locate an appropriate archival repository for the item(s). Local or state historical and genealogical societies will often welcome the donation. In addition, they will often make the contents available to a wide audience on their website.

"Our institution, the Evangelical and Reformed Historical Society, is the repository for records of the former German Reformed Church (U.S.) 1725-1869; Reformed Church in the United States 1869-1934; and the Evangelical and Reformed Church 1934-1961. We have received many donations of family Bibles, local church records, and personal papers from persons who purchased the items at local auctions, flea markets, or antique shops. All of these donations have enriched our collection, preserved the history of churches and individuals, and made the information available to historical and genealogical researchers."

As Rev. Berg points out, religious repositories may make a particularly appropriate choice for Bible records.

NGS AND NEHGS

Recently both the National Genealogical Society (NGS) and New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) have launched preservation efforts geared specifically toward Bibles. NGS recently initiated the Orphaned Bible and Family Record Rescue Project and invites people to send Bibles found "for sale, at used bookstores, on auction sites, in antique stores, or at tag, garage or yard sales." They will capture all the information for their Digital Bibles Archives Project (see National Genealogical Society Quarterly, vol. 90, No. 4, December 2002, pages 301-3 for more information) and then attempt to return the Bible to the family of origin. If you have such a Bible to contribute, contact Dereka Smith (dereka@ngs.org), Director of the NGS Member Resource Center.

NEHGS, which has been gathering New England Bibles for more than 150 years, announced The NEHGS Bible Records Recruitment Campaign last year. They request that you consider donating your family Bible (or a photocopy of its family record entries and title page) so the information can be preserved and disseminated. For more information about this project, please contact the special collections department staff (Tim Hughes, thughes@nehgs.org, or Tim Salls, tsalls@nehgs.org).

Honoring Our Ancestors: Bible Rescue Insurance

No Excuses

With all of these options, there is no excuse for any family Bible to disappear or slip into obscurity. If you are fortunate enough to own one of these treasures, please consider at least making a copy of the family pages and contributing them to one of these organizations. And if you are in the process of making a rescue yourself, please do the same. It's an insurance policy that will only cost a little time and some minor shipping fees--well worth the investment.

Subject: Robert Ector Box family

Seeking information on Robert Ector Box and family. Information in The Box Book quotes what appears to be an obituary but the phrasing is confusing and it doesn't state where he was buried. It says he died 28 Feb 1936, age 60, at his home on the Foulke Hwy, buried Harmony Grove Church Cemetery but does not say what city, county or state as the citation for the obit is not given. It says he is survived by his wife but does not give her name. Also, later in the obit listing his survivors it says survived by 'a son John Asbery Box and wife Maye Bailey Box' which of course is confusing - whose wife is Maye, Robert's or John's? Robert Ector Box was a sheriff in Rusk, Cherokee Co. and also a member of the Texas Rangers. Any information greatly appreciated.

Subject: Deaths at Rusk State Mental Hospital
I need information about an individual who died at the State Hospital. Her name was Ida Carter and she was from Lindale in Smith County. I need to know when she died and where she is buried. I don't believe the body was claimed by the family as they were all poor. Her husband had left her years before and she had no children. She was my aunt on my father's side. I'm sure she died of complications caused by paranoid schizophrenia and old age.
Thanks!
