Sons of Confederate Veterans

There is a new camp of the sons of confederate veterans. The New Salem Invincibles are committed and dedicated to the cause for which our ancestors fought for their families and sacred honor. The New Salem Invincibles offer many opportunities, for more information please visit our website: www.camp2107scv.homestead.com

Judson L. Watkins

The Cherokee County Genealogical Society is starting a new series of genealogical instruction meetings. In September, Dannie George talked about several sources of information and I talked about why to study genealogy and some basic principles in recording the data. In October, Donna Shreeve will talk about researching census data. In the following months we will continue with in-depth training on such subjects as: military records; Hispanic research; African-American research; estates and wills, real estate records; and others.

If you have some expertise in a particular aspect of genealogy and would volunteer to give a program, contact, Willie Harold Acker, Sr., 7945 FM 347 N, Jacksonville, TX 75766, 903-586-8750 or e-mail him at: sacker@spyderinternet.com.

Come join us on the second Monday of each month at 7 p.m. at Bonner Place, 421 S. Bonner, Jacksonville, Texas. Learn how to research a new source of information or be reminded of some techniques you may be overlooking.

Notes for ANNA:

Anna filed for divorce from husband John McMeans in Talledaga Co., AL Jan. 13, 1839. I do not believe that she went though with it because John had three more daughters, Cyntha being born later that year. They may have divorced and John quickly remarried had 3 girls and 2nd wife died, before he marries 3rd wife Nancy Jane Jones. But there is no evidence that there was a wife between Anna and Nancy.

Notes for NANCY JANE JONES:

Nancy and John were living with one of the children or grandchildren in Cherokee Co. when she died. My grandmother said that they were living with Burley and Ann McMeans at Pinehill and that her grave was probably under the lake. I believe this to be Lake Summerfield. Subject: Winona Marie (Myhand) Walker
Winona married Brian K. Walker 3 February, 1992. If anyone knows her please let her know her sister is looking for her. I last saw her in Palestine, TX in 1985-1986. I know she had four children: J.T., Kristina, Opal and Scott. I have been looking for her for the last 10 years and the closest I've gotten is her marriage record with Brian.

Surnames: Taylor and Hays(e) of Cherokee County, Texas
My gg grandmother is Lutetia Taylor (m. William Hays(e)), according to my great grandmother's death certificate. I am trying to find out who her parents were. I believe they were William S. Taylor and Elizabeth Meade Johnson Taylor. Does anyone have any proof of this relationship? Also, this Lutetia Taylor married William Hays(e). In 1860, according to census records, they were in Rusk, Texas with four children. In 1870, they were still in Rusk with six children. My questions are:1) Does anyone have any additional information on the Hays(e) family of Rusk, Texas?2) Where did the family go after 1870 as I lose them in

Subject: Prison Guard H.F. or Joe Eppeson, d. 29 April 1889
I am a volunteer researcher for the Texas Peace Officers Memorial. Dallas Morning News (30 April 1889) reported that on 29 April 1889, 4 miles of south of Alto, Cherokee County, Prison Guard H.F. EPPERSON (Joe EPPERSON in connected article) was killed by convict named ROACH. H. F. EPPERSON was reported to be from Henderson County. I am searching for any personal information about EPPERSON - place of burial, family history, etc. I found a number of EPPERSONs in 1880 census in Henderson County but they are African Americans.

Subject: Old Palestine Church - Maud SKEETERS
Looking for some information on the Old Palestine Church or another church of the same name. In a 1918 minute book of the Landmark Baptist Association of Nacogdoches County, I found a listing for Palestine Church. Maud SKEETERS of Nacogdoches was the church clerk and John MATLOCK of Mt. Enterprise was the pastor. Would anyone be able to confirm whether this is the Old Palestine Church near Alto or if it another church that just happened to have the same name? I assumed the Old Palestine Church was always in the Cherokee Baptist Association, so that's why I'm wondering. If it is not the old church near Alto, where was it?
Any help will be appreciated. Thanks.
