Editor's Letter

We conclude the listing of O.T. Allen's Register of Funerals, Alto, Texas 1937-1951 with this issue. We thank Serena Keech of the Stella Hill Memorial Library for transcribing the list.

Anel Grayson of Oakwood, Texas has given us permission to print the Stephen William Hairgrove Family which begins on page 12.

Kaye Slover has resigned as the Web Page Editor of our Internet site at: <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~txcherok/>. She has served with distinction in this position since the fall of 2006. The site has been awarded "The Mike Basham Memorial TXGenWeb Project County of the Month" In January 2008, May 2011 and in 2014 was added to the TXGenWeb Project Hall of Fame. Thank you for your distinguished service.

Lynda Henderson has volunteered to be the new Web Page Editor. I know that she will serve our Society well.

The Cherokee County Historical Commission, led by Deborah Burkett, Chairman, has joined with our Society to Reclaim Cherokee County Cemeteries. David Henderson has made a spreadsheet of the cemeteries in the county from about 27 sources. The spreadsheet shows: Appraisal District Owner number ID, Cemetery name(s), Latitude and Longitude, 911 address, Contact person, Contact number, Contact address, Survey Date, Earliest Burial, United States Geological Survey Topographic Name, and the source of the information. We plan to survey the cemeteries that have not been surveyed. We now have volunteers call "Cemetery Rangers" who will visit each cemetery at least twice a year and make a report on the condition of each cemetery. The Historical Commission (and some of the volunteers) will make a list of the most critical actions needed each year and list the actions in order of most critical. Then an action plan will be written and carried out. Under the leadership of the Cherokee County Historical Commission and with the help of government officials and many volunteers, we are confident the cemeteries will be preserved.
