John William Boatman (1908-1971) Biography

John William Boatman was born April 12, 1908 at New Salem, Rusk Co. Texas. He was called "Will Boatman" all his life, and was 15 when the 1900 census was taken on June 8, 1900 by Thomas L. Mays, the census enumerator. Will lived at New Salem, in the home of his parents, Henry Bell and Etta Mary (Wiggins) Boatman, who at that time, had been married nineteen years. Will, the oldest and only son, had four younger sisters: Tressie A., 13, Viola, 7, Leda A. 5, and Lula G., age 1.

Will Boatman's paternal grandparents were John "Jack" and Isabella "Ibby (Owens) Boatman; his maternal grandparents were Charles Henry Gardiner and Diana Matteson.

As shown in the May 1910 census, Will had married Ida Victoria Matteson (April 12, 1908 at Reklaw), daughter of Phelps Perry & Celestia L. (Gardiner) Matteson, and was living near Lone Star in eastern Cherokee County, about twelve miles northeast of Rusk on the Summerfield Road. When the Texas and New Orleans Railroad bypassed the town in 1903, many of the merchants and residents moved to newly established Ponta on the railroad, and by 1915 Lone Star population had fallen to about 200. In 1910 Will and Ida were shown with one daughter, Inis, age four months.

Ten years later in 1920, Will, 35, and Ida, 35, were living on the Lone Star and Summerfield Road and had six children: Inis 10, Trudie 9, Ancil 7, Elmer 5, Milton 2, and Opal, a baby of eleven months. Two more children were born in 1921 and 1924: Pansy Omie and Avis Leon. In 1925 when his father died, Will was listed in the obituary as living at Summerfield. His older children went to school there and they were living there when Trudie, 17, married Mart Lowell Brown, age 18 on September 9, 1928, and Inis married Earl Wilbarger Herod two weeks later on September 23, 1928.

By the time of the 1930 census, Will and Ida had moved to the area of Pierce's Chapel on the Jacksonville Road, located about fourteen miles northwest of Rusk in western Cherokee County. Inis and Trudie had both married and were no longer listed in their parent's home. Children at home were Ancil W. 17; Elmer F. 16; Milton H. 13; Opal L. 11; Pansy O. 8; and Leon A. 5 years, 11 months old.

As mentioned Henry Bell Boatman, Will's father, died on May 25, 1925. Will's mother Etta M. Boatman, age 62, was living with her son's family in 1930. Will's wife, Ida Victoria (Matteson) died May 2, 1938.

Will Boatman moved to the area of Corine sometime before 1948 and was living there at the time Ancil was buried at Walker's Chapel Cemetery that year. Corine was a farming community eight miles west of Jacksonville in northwestern Cherokee County. Will was living at Corrine in 1952 at age 68, when he married Minnie T. Warren. Will and Minnie lived there for the next nineteen years until his death, December 22, 1971. Minnie moved to Jacksonville and about eight months later she died in August 1972.

DEATH OF H. B. BOATMAN

Mr. Henry Bell Boatman, a brother-in-law of J. W. Wiggins of this city, died at the family home in Walker's Chapel Community on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, and was buried Wednesday at eleven o'clock, at the Myrtle Springs Cemetery. He had been ill for several months.

Mr. Boatman was born December 13, 1857 in Nacogdoches Co., TX and had lived in Texas all his life. He is survived by his wife and four children, the latter being:

Will Boatman of Summerfield, Mrs. Wylie Garner of Lone Star, Mrs. John Wilcox of Tyler and a married daughter in Dallas, whose surname is unknown to us, but whose given name is Leda.*

(The cemetery marker says Henry Bell Boatman was born on December 2, 1859. Need to check this out - or either I have made a typographical error. There also appears to be a discrepancy in the death date that I was given as May 5 - as will be seen by the newspaper article...unless there is a typo. I will check the death certificate. I think I ordered it. J.Brown)

Mary Ida Victoria (Matteson) Boatman 17 Aug 1884 - 02 May 1938

It was springtime in East Texas when Mary Ida Victoria Matteson planned her wedding to John William "Will" Boatman on April 12, 1908. Both were twenty-four years old. The wedding ceremony took place at the old Matteson home place - at the home of Ida's parents, Phelps Perry Matteson and Celestia Louisa (Gardiner), when the dogwood and redbud were in full bloom. Aunt Mina Matteson told me that just family and a few friends were present. Mina was eight years old at the time.

According to Aunt Mina Matteson, (whose father, Perry Napoleon Matteson was a brother to Ida). Mina's mother was Celia E. (Boatman).

Will Boatman and Ida married at Ida's home, situated between New Salem and Walker's Chapel Cemetery. Will's father, Henry Bell Boatman, lived less than one-half mile from the old Matteson home place, so Ida and Will were neighbors and probably attended school and perhaps church together in that area of Cherokee County.

When Mina Matteson's mother, Celia, died in May 1906, Perry Matteson took Mina and her young brother, Lawrence, who was only five months old, back to his parent's home. Mina told me in a letter:

"We lived with Grandpa and Grandma Matteson until Papa married Mrs. Georgia. Aunt Ida Matteson and Uncle Will Boatman married there while I lived there. Aunt Myrtie and I were thrilled when Trudie was born, so we'd both have a baby to play with. Aunt Myrtie was one year older than me. We lived with Grandma and Grandpa five years.

My Grandpa, Phelps Perry Matteson, had always been a farmer so far as I know. Grandma lived there at home after Grandpa died. Uncle Wash and Uncle J. D. were there at home with her. They both married the year after she died in 1927. My mother, Celia Boatman Matteson, was a first cousin to Uncle Will Boatman. Uncle Henry Boatman and my granddad, Phelps Perry Matteson, were brothers (in-law). So we kids are double cousins. Uncle Will's children and my Papa's children. Uncle Henry and his family lived near us while I lived at my Granddad Matteson's. They also lived close in East Texas until he died about 1925."

Ida Boatman was a "flower lover" and she had a way of making things grow and flourish. Throughout the spring, summer and fall months, her yard was always filled with many colorful, blooming flowers. The first child of Ida and Will died at birth, but they had eight other children who lived to adulthood: Inis; Trudie; William Ancil, WW2; Elmer Floyd; Henry Milton; Opal Louisa; Pansy Omie, and Avis Leon.

Mary Ida Victoria (Matteson) Boatman

Ida's days were filled with cooking, washing, ironing, cleaning, and sewing for her family. And she taught her children how to share the chores. There were cows to milk, butter and cheese to make, hens to set, and eggs to gather. Fruit and vegetables had to be picked and gathered for canning or drying. In the winter, hogs had to be butchered and that meant rendering the lard and making sausage and souse. Hams and middlings were cured and stored, to be used when needed. But the main job for Will and his sons were raising and harvesting the crops and caring for the family's cows, horses, mules and hogs. A lot of grain had to be raised. The girls helped in the fields when they were needed, the same as the boys. All hands were necessary at harvest. With so much work around, everybody who was old enough had to pitch in and help.

Mary Ida Victoria (Matteson) Boatman died May 2, 1938 from an asthma attack, while her family lived at Pierce's Chapel near Jacksonville, Cherokee Co, TX. She was only fifty-three.

GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Post Office Box 1332

Jacksonville, Texas 75766-1332

Annual membership dues are $20.00 (single) and $25.00 for a two-member household. The membership year ends August 31, 2017. Membership entitles you to four quarterly issues of our publication Tree Talk. Tree Talk is normally published the first week of October, January, April and July of each fiscal year. Members joining after the first issue is published will receive all issues of Tree Talk, but back issues of Tree Talk will be mailed with the next issue unless $1.00 for special handling is enclosed. The Society meets the second Monday of the months September through May at First United Methodist Church, 1031 SE Loop 456 Jacksonville, Texas at 5 p.m.
