Editor's Letter

We mourn the death of one of our long time members, Mae Gean McElroy Pettit (1924-2019) who joined in 1980. She was the author of two books, "The Families of Music, Langston, Pierce and McElroy" and "The kin of Elias Stockton, Moses Dickey and James Upchurch."

In the days before the internet and digital archives, it took her more than 12 years to drive to Tennessee or Georgia and visit the cemeteries or basements of old courthouses to complete her research.

Some of her life was told in Deborah Burkett's book "East Texas Piney Woods Spunky Women 1830s to 1950s."

I want to thank Glenda Sears, 2524 Katina Drive, Flower Mound, Texas 75925, for permission to publish the Foreman Family beginning on page 3.

For several years I have thought of publishing books of obituaries, but can't seem to find the ambition or make time to complete a book. I have, however, made partial lists of the death notices or obituaries from the Jacksonville Progress, the Tyler Morning Telegraph and the Cherokeean-Herald of Rusk, Texas. Some of that work can be seen beginning on page 16.

I want to thank the publishers of the Jacksonville Progress, the Tyler Morning Telegraph and the Cherokeean-Herald for permission to republish these obituaries.

Thanks,

Gordon Bennett

Partial List of Obituaries 2004

The late Helen Wooddell Crawford compiled 19 books of obituaries about Cherokee County, Texas citizens ending in 2001. See the list on page 34.

For several years I have thought of publishing more books, but can't seem to find the ambition or make time to complete a book. I have, however, made lists of the death notices or obituaries from the Jacksonville Progress, the Tyler Morning Telegraph and the Cherokeean-Herald of Rusk, Texas.

If anyone is interested in helping in this project, please contact me at:

Gordon Bennett

President and Editor

903-586-0135

JDP means the Jacksonville Daily Progress.

TMT means the Tyler Morning telegraph

CH means the Cherokeean-Herald

Some entries do not have a cemetery or funeral home listed. I have compiled what is printed in the notice or obituary.

Commissioners to consider allowing D.A. office job

Progress Staff Reports

After nearly a month free of meetings, Cherokee County commissioners will gather Monday to consider a number of issues, including the hiring of a part-time employee in the district clerk's office.

If approved, the new employee will help to set up cases electronically with child support and the attorney general's office.

Commissioners also will consider approval of the sheriff's report, license and weight officer report, and sheriff policy against racial profiling, recently mandated by the State of Texas.

The court will also consider the county's health insurance, and set and approve 2002 county holidays.

A county judge pro-tem will be considered to act on matters concerning the commissioner's court in the absence of the county judge.

A report of activities of the Cherokee County Historical Commission for 2001 will also be considered, as will bids for sales and purchases of backhoe loaders, tractors and mowers.

The court will also consider the a resolution supporting the East Texas Economic Development District; the approval of minutes of the December 2001 commissioner's court meetings, and authorization for the county auditor to attend a seminar in Austin in February.
